

HMCS HARRY DEWOLF

Commander Corey L.E. Gleason, MMM, CD
1st Commanding Officer
HMCS HARRY DEWOLF

Information Management & Guidance

- This presentation is UNCLASSIFIED
- This document is the property of the RCN and shall not be altered, copied, and / or distributed without the document owner's permission
- The document owner is Commander Gleason, 1st CO HMCS HARRY DEWOLF
- This document is intended to brief ship leadership on the operational status of HMCS HARRY DEWOLF. The information is not for disclosure outside of the RCN unless authorised by the document owner.
- Owners to review NDSODs Chapter 6 for more information

- RCN Crew Arctic Indoctrination & Training
- Collaborate w/OGD, Allies and CAF Elements in the Arctic
- Affiliation – next slide

6 SHIPS AFFILIATED TO THE INUIT NUNANGAT

Starting with HMCS Harry DeWolf and Qikiqtaaluk, Nunavut

Connecting with Communities
ARCTIC & OFFSHORE PATROL VESSEL
NORTHERN AFFILIATION

WHAT IS IT?

- Affiliation associates ships and crews with communities in the North
- Affiliation develops long-lasting relationships for the life of the ship
- Affiliation instills pride wherever the ship operates

HOW DOES IT WORK?

Communities and Ship's Crews form a flexible, inclusive relationship that supports:

- Community events
- An exchange of ideas, knowledge and experience
- Cultural interactions
- Environmental awareness
- Inuit and naval histories
- Mutual interests
- Learning each others rich heritage

HMCS Harry DeWolf

ARCTIC OFFSHORE PATROL VESSEL (AOPV) CAPABILITIES:

Ice-Capable, provide armed sea-borne surveillance, awareness of activities and events in Canadian waters, while asserting and enforcing sovereignty.
Length: 103 metres
Crew: 65

“A Relationship Founded on Mutual Respect”

HDW NWP Route

Roll the Film!

UNCLASSIFIED – For Official Use Only

