

Royal United Services Institute of Nova Scotia
Information Note
22 October 2017

Armoury and Armouries

An armoury is a place where weapons are stored. Two or more such places are armouries. In the USA, an armoury is a place where weapons are manufactured.

An armouries, referring to one building, is a place where militia units meet to conduct their training. This is a uniquely Canadian usage.